June 2, 1923—Surprise and much sorrow was felt by all who knew her when it was made known that Mrs.
A. W. Warm had crossed the Beyond. It occurred Wednesday,
May 30th, at St. Augustine, Fla.
A telegram to that effect was received Thursday morning by Rev. C.
W. Charles from her son, Howard.
He was also asked to conduct the funeral service this Saturday afternoon at Cleveland. It is not here known yet what caused Mrs.
Mann's death. She was supposed to have attended the Florida Association held at the School for Deaf early in May and was down for an address. After the meeting she was to have come North for a couple of months' visit with friends about the first of June. Mrs.
Mann had been invited to visit the school enroute to Cleveland by Mrs.
J. W. Jones. In answer thereto she expressed her thanks, but had to decline, because a stop-over would not be granted in Columbus.
She proposed however to do so on her way south again. Alas! that will never be. She truly returned to Cleveland in June, stilled though in death's grasp.

Mrs. Mann was well known among the deaf all over the country, and for many years she and her husband, the late Rev. A. W. Mann, had made their home in Cleveland. Several years ago, because of poor health, she made her home in St. Petersburg, Florida, with a friend. Last year she had a bungal-ow built and moved into it, intending to reside permanently there.
She was well educated and a fine lip-reader. Of the immediate family, a son, Howard, only is left to mourn her passing.

Only a few weeks ago Misses Elizabeth and Cecelia Burke, teachers of the school here, mourned the death of their mother, and Thursday morning of this week death again visited their home and took away their father, Michael F.
Burke. Death resulted from heart-disease.

The school had its annual picnic, Tuesday, at Olantangy Park, and a fine day it was for the event.
Rides, chuting the chutes, swings, swimming in the pool, free vande-ville. In the latter the trained canines of Maud Fuchs were a feature and very interesting to see.
However the swimming pool drew the larger crowd, and some of the boys and girls showed their skill in diving. The usual picnic dinner was served at 11:30 and was enjoyed.
The crowd was back at school by 5:30 tired, but happy for the day's outing in the woods.

There were no special feature for Decoration Day, aside of the suspension of school work the children amusing themselves in various ways. Some of the older boys did hikes out into the country.

Four of the boys were permitted to go over to Buckeye Lake and spent most of the time in rowboats or steam launches, thus going to every nook of the lake. It takes about an hour to reach the lake from Columbus. The boys were on time for supper and had a fine time, so they say.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Dayton has given the Heating Fund of the Women's Department $146.65, which was realized from the Mother's Day Social. That's doing nicely, since the Society is not large in numbers, but their hearts are ablaze when it comes to helping the Home and giving those under its shelter comfort and happiness.

Superintendent Chapman of the Home has been confined to Grant Hospital for a week or more, undergoing treatment for an ailment that has been troubling him for a year or more. It is likely he will be able to leave the hospital to-morrow.

William McBlane, a member of the Dayton Silent Baseball Club, was married, May 23d, to Miss Lizzie Proffitt, of South Bend, O.
After a week's honeymooning with the groom's parents of Columbus, they will go to light housekeeping in Dayton.

The Toledo Silent baseball club came down this morning and will play the school's club this afternoon.

Otto Reinbolt and Charles Pope, of Fremont, motor-cycled down to witness the game.

Miss DeMotte, teacher in the Illinois School was here yesterday, inspecting the work as carried on here. She attended the chapel service in the morning, and thought the marching in and out of the chapel by the pupils under the strains of drum and music, the singing, and service, were very interesting. She also was shown through the shops by Supt. Jones.
The Illinois School closed May 31st. A. B. G.

June 9, 1923—Thursday evening
June 7th, the commencement exercises of the Class of 1923 were held in the chapel of the school before a capacity audience, made up in part of the pupils, officers, teachers, friends of the school, and relatives
of the graduating members.

With the stars and the stripes as the background, the scenery woodland, the proscenium ornamented with potted plants, the members of the class, their teachers and speakers of the evening seated upon the stage, presented a fine view to those in attendance as they entered the chapel.

The program carried out was as follows:

Mr. Leon Odebrecht doing the introducing.

Nearer, my God, to Thee, by Mary Jones.
Invocation, by Rev. W. E. McClure, First United Presbyterian Church.

ing for the Deaf," by Charles Joseph Miller.

and Goal of Education," by James Theodore Flood.

of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

John E. Harper, Director of Welfare.

ter, Bradford; Helen Waggoner, Ialeta.

Life.

Class Flower—American Beauty Rose.

The rendering of Nearer, My God, to Thee, by Miss Mary Jones, was touching and beautiful, and at its close was applauded heartily.

The salutatory and oration by Charles Joseph Miller, were given without a hitch, and some of the points in his production met the approval of the audience by applause.

The school song, by a number of pupils given orally, at its close was applauded.

The Class of '23 has the honor of being addressed by the first woman elected by the to the Supreme Court of Ohio in Miss Florence Allen. Upon being introduced by Superintendent Jones, after paying a compliment to what she had seen and heard during the evening, she proceeded to speak upon the responsibility of the individual to the Government in exchange for what the Government does for the individual and she said woman is worth more today than ever before, and she can do a great deal and well. During her talk she quoted several stories to illustrate her points. It was fine for young people and she urged them to be ready and vote at 21.
When she closed a hearty clapping of hands greeted her ears.

Hon. John E. Harper, before presented the members of the class their diplomas, begged to be excused from making an address. He, however, commended the addresses of the two young men and the exercises he had seen during the evening. He was in favor of giving the youth of the State all the industrial training and means to that end possible, for they will later make up the citizenship of the State.

"Home, Sweet Home," was beautifully rendered by Hensley and Kelch by signs.

After the benediction and pupil audience had passed out of chapel, the visitors of the evening came up on the stage, congratulated and wished well the members of the graduating class upon their entrance on life's struggles.

Adjournment was then made to the front B floor, where ice-cream, cake, salted peanuts were served to all in the library, from two tables presided over by Misses Edgar, Hunter, MacGregor, and Branigan with other teachers assisting.

Part of the pupils' dining room had been cleared of its tables and chairs and those inclined here tripped the light fantastic too, and there were in attendance both dancers and lookers on. The orchestra of the School for Blind furnished the musical strains.

The Class of '23 is one of the largest that has been sent out from the School, and there were more relatives of the members present than we have ever seen at a like affair.

Among former out-of-town graduates present were Harlan Eller, of Toledo; Estel Barry, formerly of Fort Wayne, Ind., but now of Dayton, Ohio; George Fox and Ben Dawson, of Newark, Ohio; J. R.
Fisher, of St. Lawrence, O.; John Parks, of Bremen; Mrs. Scoy Dresback, of Linden; Neil Kennedy, of West Mansfield; Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, of Grove City; and of course, Mr. McGregor. Former Principal Patterson was also a spectator.

The sister of Mrs. Sallie Scott, with whom she was making her home in West Carrollton, Ohio, died last April, and now Mrs. Scott lives with a niece at Lebanon, Ohio.
R. R. 2, Care George Osborn, is her new address.

Mrs. Anna Callison, who is soon to become a bride, was given a surprise shower last Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Wark, in the southern part of the city.

A number of friends gathered there early in the evening, and Mrs.
Callison, who was visiting the Zells at Grandview, was invited to accompany them to the Warks on some pretense. Just before their arrival there, the guests had gathered in the parlor, so when Mrs. Callison entered and the room lighted up, she found it filled with people, among them her two sisters and a nephew.

Later a messenger arrived and handed her a package, which later proved to be a fine linen table set.
Later games were played and refreshments served, and at parting for the night a heap of good wishes were bespoken for Mrs. Callison for her future.

Mr. Kreligh B. Ayers gave a lecture under the auspices of the Bel-aire Advance Society last Saturday evening, for the benefit of the Home.
He came over to Columbus next day and remained until evening.

Mr. MacGregor gave his lecture,
"The Hunchback" to the Clifton Society last Saturday evening, which the members greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Arthur Gabel, of Cleveland, with Miss Lillian Bonise of the same city, and educated in the Day School there, were visitors here for some days this week.

Superintendent Chapman of the Home, who had been in Grant Hospital for a week or more, was taken home last Sunday, much improved from the treatment he underwent.
It is sincerely hoped the benefit will be permanent.

The Toledo Silents play the School team in a basket ball game last Saturday afternoon, and were not in it, as they were beaten 24 to 13.

A pageant by children of the school was to have been given on the lawn yesterday evening, but the rains of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and the sudden cool weather of Friday morning, made the atmosphere uncomfortable for the players in light clothing, so the affair was postponed to Monday evening, much to the disappointment of many. But it was the proper thing to do to safeguard the children's health.

for the best may never reach it, but

Los Angeles has the largest number of the silent auto owners in this country, if not in any other. By the way, it was learned from last night's paper that Los Angeles was the first to reach the 1,000,000 license. Some time ago the scribe caught a glimpse of an auto carrying California license No. 1. It seldom appears on the street with that number.

Last Sunday afternoon witnessed the laying of the corner stone for the new Episcopal Church at Sixth and Figueroa, where a number of silent Episcopalians are earnestly looking forward to their Mission meetings and also Sunday sermons
in a new desirable hall.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club of the Deaf had a meeting in their new headquarters for the first time on the second Thursday of this month. Its object was to plan for their second annual picnic in order to make enough money for the reception of the Northern Silents.
The picnic was held at Griffith's Park on May 27th.

There was a grand Weird Night
in Chinatown on the Merrie Garden ball room, at corner Fifty-fourth Street and Monte Avenue, on the evening of June 8th. The proceeds from the event are to go to defray the expenses of the Convention of the California Association of the Deaf. The affair was arranged under the auspices of the Los Angeles Branch of the National Association of the Deaf.

The Los Angeles Silent Club's annual picnic will be held at Brookside Park on July 4th. It is believed that a bigger crowd of the deaf will turn out than last year.

Mr. Irving Cohen, who was a native of New York, came out here in the hope of regaining health some years ago, since which time he had been suffering from consumption
until his recent death.

The first season of California watermelon and canteloupe on the market is just at this writing. Ye scribe and his family enjoyed a nice treat of a canteloupe for the first time this year.

Los Angeles is now making preparations for the coming of President Harding, and will no doubt, leave no stones unturned to make his visit here a very pleasant one.

Mr. Charles Hammond has secured a good steady position in a mattress factory at Alhambra. He will move out there, so as to be near the plant. His wife, being still paralyzed, is getting thin.

The Sunshine Circle had planned a grand affair for June 20th, but had to postpone it until later, owing to the fact that it would be too near the Fourth of July.

Mr. J. Singleton's mother has given up her intention of going East on advice of her doctor, who thought it would be much safer for her to stay in our climate.

Having enjoyed a week's visit up in Portland, Mrs. P. Handley and her little son returned here. Mr.
F. Bulmer has also returned from that town.

Mrs. F. Roberts will break up boarding and move back to her beach cottage at Topanga, by the first of June, for the summer.

Mr. F. Plenz has recently sold his house to Mr. and Mrs. C. Cor-doro. The new owners are so busy improving it, that they have not been able to come out to the club for some time.

Friends of Mr. A. Ruggero in New York should not be jealous of him, as he is soon to live in a new California bungalow of his own on West Adams Street.

Mrs. R. Mephram blew into town unexpectedly last week. She expects to remain until July. She says she would rather live here than San Francisco, owing to the fine climate.

There is a rumor among the deaf here of Mr. E. Evans coming to remain permanently. It is hoped to be a fact. He is residing at Free-no at present.

Another visitor blowing into the city is Mr. Henry Blanc, who intends to make his home here, if everything goes well. His former home is Fresno.

The Globe Dairy Lunch, on Olive Street, between 7th and 6th, is the most popular place with the deaf, because they always go there after attending their clubs, and stay there until very late.

Mr. George Matson has returned home to San Francisco after ten days' pleasant visit here. He said he was stuck on Los Angeles so much that he wished to be an Angeleno.

Complimenting their oldest son,
the guests numbering twenty six,
recently enjoyed a birthday party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J.
Barrett.

Mr. W. Wilson is taking great pride in a new up-to-date Chevrolet, and the auto shows it. His Dodge was disposed of before.

The other day there was an unusually lot of craning of necks to see Willard towering skyward on Broadway. His giant frame reminded the sport-lovers of his recent victory over Floyd Johnson in New York.

It is pleasant news to say that Honus Wagner, well known all over the country as the greatest short stop of the past, is now in town on a visit. It is hoped that he will locate here permanently.

DENVER.

Sunday, May 27th, a sham battle
by the Colorado National Guard was given on the rifle range near Golden, Colorado. A goodly crowd of silents, among them Messrs. Kil-than, Henry, Shaner and Easterly, turned out to witness the battle.
The above mentioned came across Lee Ackerman, of Colorado Springs, in the crowd. Lee was in cowboy regalia from head to foot and claims to have hailed from Arizona. Does he?

Though there was no program of any kind arranged by an organization for Decoration Day, May 30th, there was a great deal of calling.
T. R. Tansey started to put the second coat of paint on his house.
Before he had more than half finished his object Mr. and Mrs. L. H.
Harvat and R. H. Frewing pounced upon him. The afternoon and evening were much enjoyed by those present.

Mr. Lowe, of Forest City, Iowa, is temporarily located in Denver. He motored across the plains in a Ford coupe in two days. California is his goal. While waiting his next move he is stowing away a sum by working as mechanic in a garage. With H. E. Grace as guide, this young fellow took in approximately one hundred miles of mountain scenery recently. Mr.
Lowe is therefore high in his praise of this part of the country.

In recognition of his good work,
William Henry, a young silent shoemaker, employed at the Yellow Front Shoe Shop, was given the bench near the Champa Street window. For three years William has labored diligently under the same roof. All who pass his window can see he is worthy of the "promotion."

The Mission for the Deaf is holding its services from 7:30 to 8:30 Sundays evenings, instead of from 3:00 to 4:00 in the afternoon as heretofore. May 3d witnessed the first gathering for the evening services.
By an error of one of the church officials, the doors were locked when the crowd arrived. Not to be disappointed, the services were held "Salvation Army Style," on the corner by the over-enthusiastic participants.

Rev. J. H. Cloud is scheduled to arrive in Denver on June 9th. He will give a lecture on Saturday evening, and the usual services will be held on Sunday.

Fishing is on in earnest. Messrs.
Luther Alford and W. R. Shehan struck out for Wyoming on the first Saturday following the opening day. Ten miles below the northern boundary line of Colorado they pitched camp. Back they came the next day with two goodly sized trout.

The fishing and the lying season opened at one and the same time.
Some stay within the limits of the former, but a great many confine themselves to the latter.

Decoration Day Eve, James Alford with Frank Lessley motored up to Decker's Point on the South Platte River. The following day they cast their lines in the rushing waters. As to their luck we have not yet heard.

The motorcycle gang are minus one member now. "Chris," Christensen, tiring of the sand he had to scoop out of his eyes and from the chains of his motorcycle, traded his Harley-Davidson for a new Gray roadster. Photo plates are expensive. Rather than stand the expense of having another dozen broken "Chris" took the car in exchange. There is room for some thing more than plates in the car.
Who will the lucky one be?

Powell J. Wilson has been in Denver for well nigh two weeks.
Few have seen him and his new bride. Either home is too tempting or "wifey" objects.

This time he will remain only one month. He has to hasten back to Santa Fe, to help install another linotype. While some schools for the deaf have to get along with one or no linotype whatever, the New Mexico School for the Deaf, with a total enrollment under the century mark, is to have another one. Just imagine it! The years to come may see an army of silent linotype operators from New Mexico, all proteges of Powell Jones Wilson, one time barber.

Those contemplating visiting Denver this summer have a wonderful exhibition awaiting them. It is the Colorado Pageant of Progress.
This enterprise is being arranged and presented by two hundred representative citizens.

The proceeds from this pageant
this year and in subsequent years will go to tell the nation and the world more about Colorado.

This pageant will include Historical and Industrial exhibitions of Colorado and its manufactured products, brilliant fireworks, four days of aeroplane stunts, auto races and many other special events and attractions.

Overland Park, the municipal camping grounds for tourists, is the place. Those who stop at the park cannot help but witness this pageant any time between July 2d and 12th, inclusive.

J. H. Wilkins took his Harley-Davidson apart two years ago.
This spring he has just put it up again and is again one of the local silent motorcycleists. To date there are three, Luther Alford, Christian Christensen and the above mentioned. Two possible additions will be made this summer. Messrs. Huff and Cummings are hoping for finances to settle so they can also enjoy the mountains. The latter is stuck on the new make, the Ace.

T. R. Tansey started to paint his house. With his daily work and automobile to attend to, he felt he should hire a painter. He sent Mr. Greenwald down to do the job for him.

D. H. Wolpert is busy as a bee these days. On his way back from the Fred Bates ranch recently, he correspondent stopped off to see how things were faring on this one hundred ten-acre ranch. Mr. Wol-pert has enough cows to keep one man busy, but he spoke of adding a few more and hiring a man to help out with the work. He has enough pasturage to double his present herd.

An "inner war" has been going on in the Argo Club, but as reported in the Denver column of the DEAF MUTES' JOURNAL recently, it is not yet down and out. With a membership of something like fifteen, it has been weathering the storm as best as could be expected of those in charge.

H. E. Grace has disposed of his property at 1095 So. Washington, and is now residing at 644 Meade, in Barnum, a western suburb of Denver. Out there the air is more invigorating. Incidentally his playful children will not be so subject to the danger of being run over by passing vehicles. Always a staunch supporter of the south section of the city, it is believed time will see Mr.

The Junior Class gave a party for the Seniors Saturday evening, June 9th, in the Kendall School Chapel. It was a happy occasion.

Messrs. Harland Markel and Robert H. Kannapell staged the final contest of the tennis tourney Saturday morning, June 9th. It was only after a long hard battle that "Kanny" won the event, 6-2, 7-9, 6-4, 8-6, 6-2. It marks the second victory for Kannapell, and it was the last empty shell on Firestone Trophy—so Kanny feels justly proud.

Two more parties of students will motor home this summer. Messrs. Stebbins, Wright and Austin will motor to Utah, and Eugene McConnell will motor to Ohio, then to New Mexico. The party of Seniors will take in Columbus, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and other points west.

Alumni are already pouring in for the closing exercises. Colonel Gordon Kannapell, '24, of Louisville, was first to turn up. Miss Flo Lewis, '21, Elizabeth Moss, '21, and Sarah Tuck, '22, all of New York, Thomas Damron, ex-'26, also of Overlea, Mr. James Sullivan, '17, of Akron, Charles R. Dobbins, '21, of Trenton, and Miss Lucille Bodden ex-'25, Wisconsin, are also here.

Professor and Mrs. Day received for the Kentucky boys and girls during Commencement week. Both Mr. and Mrs. Day were formerly connected with the Kentucky School.

Mrs. John B. Hotchkiss also entertained for the Senior Class one evening of the Commencement week. Mrs. Hotchkiss and her daughters will move to Buffalo, N. Y., to live.

The Rev. Dr. Brundage, of the Eokington Presbyterian Church, preached the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning, June 10th. He brought forth the value of Christian service, and pointed out that the handicapped many men have had has proved their making in life. Dr. Hall interpreted the sermon.

The students were fortunate enough to be able to witness the great Shriner parade Thursday evening, June 7th. This parade eclipsed previous celebrations, and one of the greatest throngs ever assembled in Washington overflowed Pennsylvania Avenue. The convention came in the midst of the examination week, and we were compelled to miss part of the celebration. There were 73 special trains in Washington during the week. Many friends of the students were here.

The Kappa Gamma Fraternity gave a spread for the Alumni members who came in for Commencement.

Dr. Charles R. Ely, Prof. Victor Skyberg and Irving Fufeld, have accepted membership into the fraternity.

SAN BERNARDINO, June 3.—Deaf and dumb since he was 5 years of age, Oscar Guire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Guire, of Colton, was an honor student among 2300 graduates of the class of 1923 at the University of California.

Smiling as he struggled against odds that fate inflicted, Oscar spent four years in Berkeley's Classic halls, hearing and saying nothing, yet he won the highest award of scholarship. As he received his degree, Oscar smiled and every graduate returned that smile—a tribute to Oscar's winning fight.

Oscar has "gone through" college; he has learned chemistry as did no other student of the 1923 class; he has won his master's degree in this science, and next year he will enter George Washington University at Washington, D. C., to seek the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Oscar graduated from Gallaudet College, the only institution exclusively for deaf and dumb in the United States, and will return to Gallaudet as an instructor in mathematics and chemistry after he completes his studies at George Washington. He shuns lip-reading as an aid to the deaf and dumb. "Speech reading is of no value in the university," he writes in an "interview." Its value is greatly exaggerated. Instructors at the university were wonderful to me, granting me every opportunity to learn, and not once did they raise an objection to my entering any class.

Strangely enough, Oscar cares little for motion pictures, the silent drama. His favorite amusement, he writes, is watching the university football squad.

Guire is 24 years of age and was born in Knoxville, Tenn.

At the banquet arranged under the auspices of the Greater New York Branch of the National Association of the Deaf, in honor of the one hundred and thirty fifth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, one of the many speeches made was the report of the committee in charge of the "Gallaudet Statue Fund." A copy of the Statue of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet at Gallaudet College, is to be erected in Hartford, Ct.

The committee is headed by Dr. Thomas F. Fox. The total amount needed is five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). The committee have on hand four thousand five hundred ($4,500.00) so the balance is only five hundred dollars ($500.00).

A special committee was appointed to help speed up the work and raise the extra five hundred dollars ($500.00) before December 10th, 1923, so that the statue may be erected at the earliest date possible. The special committee appointed is as follows:

476 West 215 Street, New York City.

MISS VIRGINIA B. GALLAUDET,

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James R. Reid, 1323 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

On June 1st, when the resignation of Rev. C. O. Danziger took effect, the Rev. J. O. McIlhenny (hearing), Rector of the Church of the Resurrection, Broad and Tioga Streets, became Priest in charge, and Rev. Warren M. Smaltz, deacon-in charge of All Souls' Church for the Deaf. Under the arrangement made, the Rev. McIlhenny is nominally in charge only, while Rev. Smaltz has active charge under him and subject to his direction. This arrangement may continue until Rev. Smaltz is elevated to the priesthood, a year hence, if not sooner.

The Board of Managers of All Souls' Guild, the parochial organization of All Souls' Mission, with some functions similar to that of a vestry, in fact, held its first regular meeting at the parish-house on Tuesday evening, June 5th, at which Revs. McIlhenny and Smaltz both were present and had charge. Rev. C. O. Danziger also was present, and Mrs. Joseph E. Lipsett attended as interpreter.

Rev. Smaltz announced that no change in the personnel of the Board would be made by him. Routine business was mostly transacted, and then matters that need immediate attention were considered. The Board does not meet in summer, so the next regular meeting may be held on the first Tuesday of October.

At the Communion service on June 3d, when Rev. McIlhenny was celebrant, and Rev. Smaltz assisted and preached, announcement was made that arrangement would be made to have a different hearing clergyman for each Communion service, so that ministers might become acquainted with the work of All Souls'. As the hearing ministers are generally engaged in the mornings at their own church, it is proposed to hold All Souls' Communion service in the evenings. So, watch for frequent announcements as to the time for services at All Souls'.

The experiment of holding all the Sunday services during July, August and September, in the evenings, will be tried.

Rev. Smaltz again captured the first prize of $100 at the recent commencement of the School of Divinity. That means that he was No. 1 scholar in 1923, as he was in 1922. He has brought much credit to the deaf, and we may well feel proud of him.

The Rev. H. J. Pulver was the only deaf clergyman to attend the ordination of Mr. Smaltz to the Diaconate at the Pro Cathedral on May 27th, last. He then officiated at All Souls' Church in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Ritchie, of Reading, also attended the ordination.

Among the gifts given to Rev. Smaltz on his ordination were a cassock, vest, surplice and stole from his friends of All Souls' Church. Miss Fannie Stueckert, of Doylestown, embroidered the cross on the surplice very beautiful. A stole collar was also contributed by Miss Dora Kintzel of All Souls'. A green and a purple stole were presented by the deaf of Wilmington, Del.; a handsome vestment bag by the deaf of Camden, N. J. and a Bible dictionary by the Trenton deaf of the Episcopal faith. All these gifts are very much appreciated by Rev. Smaltz.

Mrs. Daniel Paul was delightfully surprised on her birthday anniversary last May 5th. The surprise was planned by Mrs. Charles Partington and was successfully carried out with the hearty assistance of Mrs. Paul's husband and her son Chandler and his wife at their cozy home in Cheltenham, Montgomery County, just outside of Philadelphia. Mrs. Paul was more than delighted by the surprise given her and she was further pleased by the gifts of her friends. The evening was pleasantly passed in social intercourse and amusing games, following which refreshments were served. Among those who joined in the surprise besides those above mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Salter, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. John Mahon, Mesdames M. J. Syle, E. Danzer, T. D. Delp, and Misses Helen S. Parker, Dora Kintzel, Susan McKinney, and G. M. Downey, and Messrs. Wm. McKinney, Wm. C. Shepherd. A few more friends were invited, but unable to attend.

The Annual Strawberry Festival of the Pastoral Aid Society on June 2nd was, as usual, well attended, successful and enjoyable. Some of the outside visitors to this event were Misses Clementine Meleg and Annie Robinson, Messrs. Francis Purcell and Walter Waltz, all four from Trenton, N. J.; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gaerthe, of Lancaster, Pa. Mrs. Elizabeth H. Rigg, a former Philadelphian, of Elizabeth, N. J., did not find it convenient to attend the festival as she would have liked to do, so she sent a dollar contribution. That was nice but unexpected.

On Memorial Day, May 30th, All Souls' Parish House was made the rendezvous of quite a large number of deaf people, particularly in the afternoon when the Cleric Library Association held a free picnic. More came towards evening after they had attended various sport events of the day elsewhere. A pleasant time was spent by all. An amusing feature of the evening was an exhibition of Russian dancing by Messrs. Stephen Heiner and James Jennings. The former was a visitor from Scranton, Pa. Another visitor for the day was Fred W. Messner, of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Eva Peck, of Trenton, Pa., was a recent visitor here, visiting her sister Mrs. Charles M. Pennell. Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Danziger reopened their Wildwood Cottage on June 7th.

John A. Roach spent the past week visiting in and around the Hub (Boston, Mass.)

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Davis and their daughter Nettie enjoyed a visit to Easton, Pa., over Memorial Day.

On May 19th last, Mr. Harry E. Stevens entertained the members of the Philadelphia Local Branch with lantern slides of the Canadian Rockies and other views. The views were beautiful and appreciated by those present.

Henri Roome, who emigrated here from France over thirty years ago, has been seized with an irresistible desire to return to Europe and expects to sail for Lille, France, on July 11th. It may mean that he may never return, for he is not naturalized. He has already sold out the contents of his shoe shop.

The two young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Scott, Emma and Bessie Scott, were in Miss Sings' Exhibition at the Frankford Theatre on Thursday night, May 10th, 1923. Both Emma and Bessie did two dance numbers with their dancing class. The first dance was called "Dance of the Hours" and the second was "Dance of the Rose Petals." Both girls with their class wore pretty Grecian costumes and danced in their bare feet.

Mrs. James Dougherty's daughter, Mrs. Mamie Haas, had a baby girl born to her on Sunday morning, May 13th, 1923. It will be christened Dorothy Elizabeth Haas.

On Saturday evening, May 12th, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ormrod tendered Mrs. Frank J. Hanley a party in honor of her birthday at their cozy home on East Wishart Street, Kensington.

Mrs. Hanley received some pretty and useful gifts from her friends. An enjoyable evening was spent in a social way. A large birthday cake was pieced around and other refreshments served. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Ormrod and her mother and Mr. and Mrs. Hanley, there were present Mr. and Mrs. James M. Purvis, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Koenig, Miss Margaret Bennett, Mrs. Christopher Scott, Wm. C. Shepherd and Washington Houston.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. John F. H. Detweiler and their daughter went to Danville, Pa., to spend a Sunday with Mr. Detweiler's youngest brother, John. While there they were joined by another brother, Samuel, whom they had not seen for thirty-four years. One may imagine what a pleasant reunion that was. They returned to Philadelphia late that Sunday night after a most delightful visit.

We regret to report that Mrs. Martin C. Fortescue is seriously ill at the Presbyterian Home for Aged Couples, Bala, where she and her husband are residents.

DeWitt Tonsley

Information has come, through a Seattle friend, of the death of DeWitt Tonsley, which occurred in that city, May 6, 1923. For several years Mr. Tonsley had been totally blind, and for a year past his health had been failing, and there were spells when he was not quite himself mentally. He was unconscious for three days before the end came. At the time of his death he was eighty-nine years and twenty-six days old. The remains were cremated and the ashes rest in Mount Pleasant cemetery in Seattle, beside those of his wife.

DeWitt Tonsley was born in Ohio, April 10, 1834. He was educated at the Ohio School. For a time he was a teacher at the Hartford School.

October 25, 1865, he was married to Sophronia McClure, who was educated at Hartford. They moved to Minnesota in the pioneer days, and located at Le Sueur, Minn. Later they moved to St. Paul. Two children were born to them, Clark Sherman, now living in St. Paul, and Orr J., of Seattle. Mr. Tonsley was active among the deaf people of the Twin Cities. He organized a society in St. Paul, and was prominent in social and religious work. He was a great reader and had a fund of information on all sorts of topics. He was of a sociable, genial, and cheerful disposition, and had a fund of anecdote with which he delighted those present at social gatherings. He was an influence for good among the deaf people of this state.—Minn. Companion.

OMAHA.

The Nebraska School baseball team defeated the Iowa School team in an exciting game at Fontenelle Park on the afternoon of May 29th, by a score of 22 to 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Deer, formerly of Akron, O., stopped in Omaha, May 29th, enroute to Shelton, Wash., where they will make their future home in a log cabin in the woods with all the modern improvements available. They were met at the station in the wee sma' hours of the morning by Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Treunke with their new Chevrolet. They made hurried visits to the Nebraska and Iowa Schools. Mr. Deer's father, who is very ill, expects to undergo a serious operation, and called them home. Mrs. Deer and Mrs. Treunke were chums at Gallaudet.

On Wednesday evening, May 23d, occurred the wedding of Miss Esther Sherwood, a teacher at the Nebraska School, and Ernst Modlin, who at one time was the manual training instructor there. They will make their home in Winfield, Kan., where Mr. Modlin teaches Manual training at the High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto McMullen, of Los Angeles, Cal., were in Omaha, visiting friends and relatives the last two weeks of May. Both are enjoying good health and looking fine. Mr. McMullen, who is over seventy, makes nine dollars a day at the carpenter's trade.

May Day exercises were held on the Nebraska School lawn, the afternoon of the 29th. The participants were members of the gymnasium classes under the direction of Miss Amelia Kuster, who also has charge of Domestic Art. Viola Bilger, one of this year's graduates was crowned Queen of the May. This was followed by a May-pole dance.

Miss Emma Marshall, of York, Neb., who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John M. O'Brien, will teach in Lehigh, Neb., next year. She taught in Raymond, near Lincoln, the past five years. She is the only sister of Mrs. O'Brien.

We have a bone to pick with Los Angeles for stealing so many of our best citizens and giving nothing in return. But, of course, they will only laugh and continue to boost their climate and whatever else we lack.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Bingham have their home and Ford Sedan and bought a Hupmobile, and will leave this month with their daughter and Richard's parents, brothers and sisters to make their home in Inglewood, a suburb of Los Angeles. The deaf of Omaha and Council Bluffs gave them a farewell reception Wednesday evening, June 6th, at the Nebraska School auditorium, with the local Frats in charge, and John O'Brien as Chairman of the Committee. Mr. and Mrs. Bingham were called to the platform and appreciation and good wishes were showered on them by Messrs. Jelinek Comp, Treunke and Sowell, and Mesdames Comp, Treunke and Blankenship. Mr. and Mrs. Bingham were presented a handsome electric coffee percolator, with sugar bowl and creamer, and an electric toaster. Arthur T. Nelson spoke in behalf of the Home Circle, who also gave them a beautiful silver fruit dish. Mr. and Mrs. Bingham were unable to adequately express their feelings, so Mr. Bingham, Senior, came to their rescue. Ice cream and cake were served. The Bingham have lived in Omaha the greater part of their lives. Dick is quiet and efficient, and Laura, "the girl who never grew up," is full of pep and wholesome fun. Good luck to them!

Tommy Peterson, one of this year's graduates at the Nebraska School, fell fifty-five feet from the branch of a tree to the ground. He received internal injuries, from which he has a fighting chance to recover at Paxton Memorial Hospital.

The local Kappa Gamma boys had a dinner at the Henshaw on Sunday, May 27th, in honor of Messrs. Wills, O'Donnell and West, who came to attend the Alumni banquet. They had their pictures taken in a group, and one will probably be sent to the Chapter at Gallaudet College.

Robert Booth, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Booth, who has been a student instructor at Dartmouth College, was appointed a teacher of Economics at the college next year. His brother, Edmund, who has been at Harvard University, taking post-graduate work in English, will return to Dartmouth as Professor of English. Both spend the summer with their parents and sister at the Nebraska School.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trisler are the proud parents of an eight-pound boy since May 27th.

A class of seven was confirmed by Bishop Shaylor of the Episcopal diocese on Friday evening May 18th. Rev. J. H. Cloud assisting. The Bishop's sermon was interpreted by Mr. Booth. An informal reception was held at the up-to-date Parish Hall on the following Friday evening. Meetings will be held there every fourth Friday evening and the name of the mission will be chosen next Fall. Mrs. Ota Blankenship is president of the ladies' guild, Mrs. Hazel, vice-president, and Mrs. Tom Anderson, secretary-treasurer. Rev. Cloud stopped in Omaha June 7 to give a lecture, including thirteen stories from "Life," to the pupils literary society at the Nebraska School. He was on his way to Denver.

Does any one know of the whereabouts of a Mrs. Bertha Freeman, who attended the New Jersey School for the Deaf at Trenton about the year 1890? If, so please communicate with Mrs. Ota Blankenship, School for the Deaf, Omaha, Neb.

The girls of the K. S. Club of the N. S. D. went on a hike Saturday, June 2, with Mrs. Blankenship and Misses Wyckoff and Kuster. They rode to the end of the Albright car line, walked miles through woods till they came to a beach, and after lunch they waded in the water and had lots of fun. They arrived home at 8:30 P.M., very tired but happy.

Willie Lueders, formerly of Kansas City, Mo., who is now working in Omaha, drove to Kansas City with Walter Chase, in the latter's Ford touring car May 30th, and remained over Sunday, June 3d. On account of a broken brake, they had to sleep by the roadside near Nebraska City.

The High Class girls of the Iowa School entertained the High Class boys and their teachers at a party, Friday evening, June 8th, in the gymnasium. Various games and dancing were enjoyed and delicious refreshments, consisting of ice-cream, cake and lemonade, were served by the girls, who arranged everything themselves and enjoyed it.

Several Omaha families spent Sunday afternoon, June 10th, at the Iowa School, with Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Stevenson, who were visiting them.

Mrs. Emma M. Seely entertained at dinner, Saturday, June 9th, for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bingham.

Mrs. Seely's son, Perry, Jr., took part in the Y. M. C. A. Athletic contests recently, in Class C, and out of eight entrants, he won first and received a beautiful medal.

HALL.

NEWARK, N. J.

The strawberry festival and games under the auspices of St. Thomas' Mission, at Trinity Parish Hall on Saturday evening, June 2d, was a great success, with both attendance and financials end of it. The hall was an ideal place for any entertainment, and can easily hold about 500 people. Noticed among the crowd were many people from New York City, Brooklyn and Jersey City.

Promptly at 8:30, the games were started, and well contested for prizes as follows:—

Peanut picking with a pin in a large bowl. Ladies, Mrs. McCluskey, of New York City. Gentlemen—Mr. Taft, of Newark.

Advertisements—Each contestant filling in notes the famous advertisements seen in Trolley or Subway Cars, as many as they could think of. Ladies—Mrs. Bothner, of New York City. Gentlemen—Mr. A. L. Thomas, of Newark.

Finding the donkey's tail blindfolded. Gentlemen—Mr. F. Hoppaugh. The prizes were very appropriate, all Waterman fountain pens and pencils. Strawberries with ice-cream and cakes were served and dancing followed. Mr. R. M. Robertson added to their pleasure by wearing a real Scotch kilt, but regretted he could not dance a real Scotch dance. Great credit was due to Mr. F. Nimmo and his several helpers, who worked hard and did their utmost to make the affair a success.

Newark, No. 42, N. F. S. D. had its strawberry in the club rooms of New Jersey Deaf-Mute Society Inc., on Saturday evening, May 26th, but the party was so small on account of its lack of publicity not being made known earlier, but they enjoyed the games so much and prizes were contested for quite eagerly.

Their monthly meetings will be held in the same hall on first, Tuesday of July and August only, or until further notice.

JERSEY.

R. M. ROBERTSON
June 7, 1923

Under the direction of Prof. Gault, who teaches psychology at Northwestern University, a student absolutely deaf is learning "to hear," through the palm of his hand. He is rapidly acquiring a vocabulary and Professor Gault believes the discovery will work wonders in teaching deaf children.

Many adventures lead into the brain, and will anyone doubt for inside the brain dwells a power that creates reality. There are some blind, that know more of nature's beauty than others with sound eyes. Beethoven, stone deaf, heard in his brain, and wrote music that no other man has written. We are not "material beings" whatever the materialists may tell you.—Detroit Times.

CHICAGO.

Mrs. Arthur L. Roberts is summing with her mother in Cleveland. Bobs himself escorted her there May 25, addressing a crowd of Clevelanders at the mission that night. Next evening he "speechified" before the Akron Frats. "I don't want to knock, and I don't want to seem to brag," Bobs said, "But honestly I was amazed at the big turn-out in Akron. You never see such crowds at literary assemblages here in Chicago."

Dewey Deer, the greatest full-back Gallaudet ever had, and captain of the Goodyear Silents, passed thru Chicago, May 28th with his wife—(nee Lula Watts) for Washington State, where they will settle down on a farm Deer senior gave them. And thus passes from athletic life a human hurricane who could have made the All American eleven had he played on a large hearing varsity. Weighing 190 lbs., running the hundred in 10½, and combining indomitable bulldog pluck with terrier ferocity, Dewey could have attained athletic immortality had luck played his way.

Engraved invitations to a "kitchen shower" brought forty ladies to All Angels' May 26th, Miss Marie Tanzar (she will be Mrs. Ed. Heitzler, of Toledo, soon) receiving so many tokens had to call a taxi to get them home. Aside from two percolators, no two presents were duplicates. The U-shaped table was decorated in excellent society style, place cards and everything. It is reckoned the affair cost the committee around $8 apiece: Mesdames Craig, Henry, Leiter and Brimble, and Misses Ferguson and Newman.

Arthur Hinch managed a strawberry festival at the Sac June 2, that netted a small profit, despite the shamefully meager crowd. Next day, Decoration Day, saw about two hundred silents in Washington Park. That evening Johnnie Sullivan managed an "athletic entertainment" at the Sac. In the five-round feature bout, E. Riha of the Ephphatians is said to have earned the decision over John Probert of the S. A. C.

Abe Migatz is again managing a baseball team for the Sac. No amount of hard luck seems to discourage that young man, he is always up and trying. May 27, his Sac team beat Wilmette, 6 to 4. Migatz is hoping to secure several stars from the Gallaudet nine when college closes June 13.

Mrs. George Frederick Flick returned June 7th, after some months visiting Baltimore, New York, and other cities.

The Hyman Frankels have a Ford sedan.

George Carlson, Walter Werner, and other young orators, attended a birthday party at the home of Miss Elsie Ahrenberg.

Billy O'Neil was in town a few days on business early in June.

Miss Geraldine Gibbons, the slim brunette beauty who centered that page-layout of Chicago beauties in the Silent Worker last winter, is moving to Toledo this month, her father having secured a lucrative situation there. He was formerly in politics here holding a responsible position with the drainage commission.

Another of the beauties on that page, Miss Charlotte Watts will become Mrs. Armand V. Ronstadt June 21st, and change her address to Tucson, Arizona, May 27th, Miss Edna Twebach gave her a shower here, two dozen young guests bringing many beautiful gifts.

A Chicago crowd called on the C. Hayfords in Brookfield, May 30.

Mrs. Julia Engel entertained a dozen friends at her Morgan Park home May 26th.

William Higgins, one of the Ephphatians, died of consumption June 4th.

Mrs. Golding, Ind., died May 30, leaving a little baby.

Friday, June 1, Edward McCarthy and Miss Edith Curran were married at the church on May St.

Arthur Meehan goes to Columbus June 25, planning to make somebody Mrs. Meehan.

Alfred Arnot decorated the graves of his mother and brother in South Bend on Decoration Day. His mother died this year on the 50th anniversary of her marriage.

YOUNG-EATON.

St. Ann's Church witnessed a pretty little private wedding ceremony at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 13th. Mr. Alvan D. Young and Miss Grace Ethel Eaton were united in holy matrimony by the Rev. Frederick Burgess, rector of St. Matthew and St. Timothy. The service was interpreted into the sign language by Miss Virginia B. Gallaudet. Only a few friends of the bride and groom were present besides the reporter. Miss Beatrice A. Chandler was bridesmaid, and Mr. Keith Watt Morris was a best man. The bride was given away by her cousin, Mr. Harry C. Davidson, of this city.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of fawn-colored georgette, with a hat of the same material overlaid with lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The altar was profusely decorated with roses, sweet peas, and ferns, given by Mr. Keith Watt Morris. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Davidson; Mesdames McCluskey, Kent, Lieberz, Haberstroh, Bothner, Kane, and Mitchell; Misses Judge, Barrager and Miller; Messrs. Pfandler and Braddock. It was a quiet wedding, but the final send-off was not so quiet. A shower of rose-leaf confetti dropped suddenly upon the happy couple as they started for the taxi which took them away to parts unknown.

Both young people are graduates of the Northampton School, and came to this city from Boston. Mr. Young is a member of the Men's Club of St. Ann's Church, and the former Miss Eaton is a member of the W. P. A. S. and prominent in the work of that society since she first came to New York six years ago. The newlyweds will start their married life with plenty of good wishes and congratulations. Their union has been expected and awaited for nearly a year, its final consummation having been delayed to give Mr. Young time to get settled in this city—which evidently he has done to the satisfaction of all his friends here, who wish to keep him in their midst with his charming bride.

The social season of St. Ann's Church closed with a bang Saturday, June 9th, when the Guild of Silent Workers gave a strawberry festival and vaudeville for the benefit of the poor fund. An attendance of over one hundred witnessed the two-act farce performed on the stage, and voted it a good show. This, we hope, leaves a pleasant taste in the mouths of the public which will be remembered next fall and bring the crowd back to St. Ann's for more. The comedy performed on this occasion was written out by the Rev. Mr. Kent—part of it being based upon an idea from the Broadway stage hit "Jack and Jill"—and was managed by Mr. Alfred Stern. The acting was well taken care of by such past masters as Prof. Jones, Mrs. McCluskey, Miss Judge, and Messrs. Pfandler, King, and Funk—not to say Mr. Pace, who still has time to forget his duties as stage setter and come out in costume. Dancing was done between the acts by Misses Jessie Garrick and Doris Patterson, of the Fanwood High Class. Program:—

During the illness and recuperation of the Rev. John H. Kent in St. Luke's Hospital, where he has had an ulcer removed from his intestines, the church work at St. Ann's and elsewhere has been handicapped. The Rev. Mr. Smielan, of Central Pennsylvania, lent his aid on Sunday, June 2d, and administered the Holy Communion at St. Ann's Church. The Rev. Henry J. Pulver, of Washington, D. C., served Communion at Newark on June 17th, and also held morning prayer services at St. Ann's Church on the same day.

FANWOOD ALUMNI.

The Fanwood Alumni Association held its annual meeting in the Girls' Study Hall of the New York Institution, on Saturday evening, June 16th.

Business of importance was transacted, and the Constitution was revised so as to admit all graduates, and even former pupils, who for one reason or another were unable to finish their full course. They will have equal privilege as full-fledged members, except being ineligible to the office of president.

At the conclusion of the business session new officers to serve for two years were elected. They are William H. Rose, President; Chas. Wiemuth, Vice-President; William G. Jones, Secretary; Myra L. Barrager, Treasurer; Thomas F. Fox, Alexander L. Pach and Archibald McL. Baxter, Trustees.

Ice cream and cake were then served to all present.

CRAMES POST LEADS CITY IN POPPY DRIVE RETURNS.

With a majority of returns from the poppy drive conducted May 23d to 30th tabulated, Private Charles Crammes Post, No. 25, V. F. W., leads the entire city in amount of contributions received.

Due to the co-operation of several organizations, including the Bronx Women's Federation, over $2,000 was received.

An interesting incident in connection with the drive was revealed yesterday. A deaf woman walked into the campaign headquarters and laid a slip of paper on the desk. On the slip was written:

"May I help sell poppies."
"The woman was given 200 flowers, which she disposed of in record time. When she brought in the proceeds she left a note with the statement:

"If we deaf couldn't go to war, at least we can help a little."

She is Mrs. A. Cohn, 699 East 137th Street, Secretary of the Jewish Sorority of the Deaf.—Home News.

To live a normal life is the great hue and cry of the age; and before the evening was over the six girls graduating from St. Joseph's Institute for the Deaf, 113 Buffalo ave., proved to their audience that they were just girls—normal in every way save in hearing—at the commencement exercises held in Our Lady of Good Counsel Hall, Madison Street, between Patchen and Ralph Avenues, last night.

Although the girls could not hear the music by which they danced, they displayed a sense of rhythm much commented on by the audience. There was no faltering in their dancing, and even the Indian clubs were swung in perfect unison with each other and the music.

The six graduates are: Catherine F. Breslin, Mary C. Benziger, Anna H. Degnan, Lucy R. Gallo, Mabel A. Mellon and Sarah C. Tramuta, all ranging in age from 18 to 20 years. Each girl is to step out and work at her trade, either dressmaking or millinery.—Brooklyn Eagle, June 6.

The wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Goodman was held at Beethoven Hall, on the 3d of the month. Rev. Amateau married them at 10:30 P. M. The bride, who was Minnie Brown, was dressed in white satin sleeveless gown, trimmed with pearl beads and filet lace. She wore a long veil and pearl beaded crown on her head. She and her husband are now on their two weeks' honeymoon trip. They will live in Montreal, Canada, where the bridegroom's home is. The deaf present were: Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Friedman, Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Paul and Mrs. Ellis Sandler, of Montreal, Canada.

WOMAN MISSING, SON REPORTS.

Mrs. Nancy Shean, 40, a deaf-mute, of 159 Rockaway Road, Jamaica, is reported missing from her home by her son, William, 18 years old. According to her son, Mrs. Shean left Friday morning to go to work as usual in a bicycle factory in Brooklyn. When she left home Mrs. Shean wore a black suit, her wedding ring, and carried about $20 with her.—Brooklyn Eagle, June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Dundon and daughter, Edith, of Belmont, N. J., spent Sunday, June 3d, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Throckmorton, in Red Bank, N. J., making the trip by auto.

PICNIC OF BRONX DIVISION No. 92

What: Pic-nic and Games.
When: June 23d, afternoon and evening.

Where: Hoffman Park, Unionport, N. Y.

Saturday afternoon and evening will begin the picnic season, with Bronx Division, No. 92, leading. The Park is new to most of the deaf, but is easily reached, and there's no fear of being lost. Members will be at the car stops to call you off. Anyway, the Park is only two blocks from the end of the line.

Restaurant right next to the Park. Drinks, ice cream, and lots of other refreshments are also to be had at the Park.

Sports—(Men) Two mile run, relay race and shot-put. (Women) 50 yards dash, three legged race and ball throwing. Children, (Boys and Girls) 50 yards dash. Tug-of-war for Frats only. Prizes of the best kind only, will be awarded. Prizes for men will be medals for races and shot-put, and a cup for the best relay team.

In the evening there will be dancing, and prizes for both partners will be awarded at the dance contest.

With the schools almost closed and the Fanwood games over, the next outdoor meet of the deaf of the city will be at the Picnic and Games of the Silent Athletic Club of Greater New York, at Ulmer Park, Saturday afternoon and evening, July 7th.

There is a program of sports for all ages. The prizes being of the useful variety, rather than the usual medals given in the past by the various societies holding such affairs.

This will be the first invasion of Ulmer Park by the deaf for this summer, and in spite of the cry "to move to a better field," it is still very heavily patronized by the local deaf.

No doubt with the Coney board walk only a few steps away, there will be many more present this year. They will be among the group at the outing in the afternoon, and with the others take in the cool breezes of the ocean in the evening.

The boys in charge of the affair are all experienced in the line of entertaining, and no doubt their efforts will be appreciated by the attendance of a majority of the local deaf. A good baseball game between two popular local deaf teams is in the formation and will be so announced.

Tickets are procurable from any of the members. Have you yours?

Mrs. M. Kaminsky (nee Sarah Pusin) went to Washington during Commencement week at Gallaudet College. The trip was made in her father's touring car, and baby Rita, and her father and mother accompanied her. They were proud to see her sister Belle get her degree. Mrs. Kaminsky is an ex-student of Gallaudet. Mr. Kaminsky is making a trip in the region of Saratoga and Lake George.

Henry W. Hester, the noted Jersey surf fisherman, will start his surf fishing at various outlets on the famous Jersey coast next month. He is planning to take a party of friends—girls and boys—for fishing at Fire Island, Babylon, L. I. He is after a big weak-fish, the record is eight pounds, caught by Ed. Doenges.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hutton, former New Yorkers, but for many years residents of California, have moved from San Mateo to San Francisco. Mr. Hutton will be seventy-nine years old in September. He has retired from marble-cutting, after working as a cutter for sixty-four years.

Miss Barbara Hunter and Mr. George Schmidt were married, Sunday, May 13th, at the residence of the groom, Maywood, N. J., the Rev. John H. Kent officiating. Both are graduates at Fanwood of the early '90s.

Mrs. I. V. Jenkins and Miss S. Howard spent a pleasant day together on June 12th. The former is stopping at the Martha Washington Hotel for a short time.

A baby girl, weighing seven pounds at birth, was born to Mr. and Mrs. James F. Reddy, of Brooklyn, on June 4th. The baby will be named Ruth, after her mother.

The Eastern friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Zentzis (nee Ella Doyle, of Kenosha, Wis.), will be glad to know they have a lovely home and car of their own in Plaza, Wash., near Spokane. They are doing well.

TACOMA.

June 5, 1923—The drawing power of Tacoma—"The City of Destiny"—is bringing several new comers to the city. Among the latest are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Key, formerly of Olathe, Kansas, and Yakima, Wash. Mr. Key has secured employment at the Wheeler-Osgood plant. They are very well pleased with Tacoma and hope to remain permanently. They are very welcome additions to our circle.

Mr. Maurice Miller is one of those individuals, who knows how to stick to a good job when he has it. He has been employed at the Wheeler-Osgood plant for eleven years. Others employed at the above plant, besides the two mentioned, are Mr. Geo. Ecker and Mr. E. C. Hale. All are on the night shift, except Mr. Miller.

Recently Mr. E. C. Hale, not feeling very well, decided to lay off from work and take life easy for a while. So he and his wife and baby went to Portland, Oregon, to visit relatives. While there Mr. Hale secured work in Portland, but after a week of it decided "there is no place like Tacoma," so he is now back at his old job at Wheeler-Osgood.

The elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ecker, who has been in poor health, since her illness with pneumonia, is now reported to be improving. She is with her grandmother at Orting, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Eaton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stuard, of Puyallup, Wash., Sunday, May 13th.

Mr. S. D. Eaton is employed at the City Lumber Company. He is one of Tacoma's pioneer deaf, having lived here forty-four years. He says he is so well known among the mills in Tacoma that when he leaves one job he has no difficulty in securing another. He and his wife are comfortably domiciled in their new home in Oakland addition.

The long street car rides to and from work every day got Mr. John Gerson's "goat," so he and his wife sold their home in South Tacoma, last January, and bought three lots nearer to the city. They are now "camping" in their woodshed, until they build their new home this summer. Mr. Gerson is employed at the Buffelen Mill Company.

Mr. Ralph Pickett, a recent new arrival to the city, is employed at the Buffelen Mill Company. The young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stuard, of Puyallup, while playing with a neighbor's ax recently, accidentally chopped off the tip of one of his fingers.

Mr. John Woolridge, of Puyallup, is employed at the Todd ship yards. His wife is looking forward to a visit from her mother, who is expected from Oklahoma about the end of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huffman expect to build a new modern cottage on their property near Fern Hill soon. Mrs. Huffman is looking forward to a visit from her son and daughter, by a former marriage, who are expected from St. Louis, Mo., soon. They have both just recently been married.

Church Services for the deaf are held by Rev. Geo. W. Gaertner, of Seattle, at the Lutheran Church, South 16th and I Street, Tacoma, on the second and fourth Sundays at 10:30 A. M. The membership is increasing.

The South Tacoma Fire Department made a run on March 1st, to the home of Mrs. Emma Hutson on Rigney Hill, about a mile south of town. The fire proved to be only a slight chimney blaze and no damage was done. Mrs. Hutson, a widow, lives alone and the fire started while she was cooking dinner. After the excitement was over the firemen assured her that she could continue with her cooking with no fear of her house burning down. Mrs. Hutson expects to sell her place and move to Wisconsin to live with relatives, when a buyer turns up. It is a nice 8-room house, with one acre.

Mr. A. W. Lorenz will leave on July 7th for a three-week vacation trip, visiting relatives whom he has not seen in many years. He will visit Chicago, La Crosse, Wis., St. Paul, and other points, returning home about August 1st.

Mr. Lorenz has been very successful in the tailoring business, owning half interest in a tailoring establishment in Tacoma.

He has four attractive grown children, all married except the youngest son, Waldo. The youngest daughter, Gertrude, was married last November and lives at Long Beach, Cal. The elder daughter, Alida (Mrs. Todd) lives in Tacoma, and the elder son, Homer, and charming wife, live with him at his attractive country home in the suburbs. His wife died a year ago last March. We all loved and miss her.

On the occasion of his birthday the local deaf gathered at the home of Mr. A. W. Lorenz on May 20th and enjoyed the day in the usual social way, and refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ecker, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. John Gerson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Key, Mr. and Mrs. John Woolridge, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stuard, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bertram, of Seattle; Mrs.

William Rowland, Mrs. Eva Seeley, Miss Mabel Segel, Mr. Lorenz, and the children of the deaf.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rowland are doing well with poultry on their ranch at Spanaway, a suburb of Tacoma. The location is quite ideal for poultry raising; being fields of prairie land with plenty of trees scattered about—especially fir trees, which add to the beauty of the surroundings. They have a modern chicken house and about 617 chickens at present, 124 of which are laying hens that bring them 100 to 110 eggs a day. At present the Rowlands are camping in a small building which will later be used for another chicken house. They expect to build their new home this summer.

Ernest Rowland, deaf brother of William, has a Fordson Tractor, and is kept quite busy hiring out on various contracts.

A Golden Eagle—yes, a real, live Golden Eagle! It swooped down on one of William Rowland's chickens one day last January and was first noticed by Mrs. Rowland, who was in the house at the time. At first she thought it was their dog, but suddenly, it spread wings and she ran for William, who got his gun and shot at it. It got away, however, dropping the chicken in its flight. Next day it reappeared at a neighbor of William and was trying to make way with a turkey, which put up a strenuous fight. This neighbor proved a good shot and landed the "prize," of which he is very proud, such being unknown in this region.

It measured 6 feet spread of wings and 3 feet head to tail tip. He took it to a taxidermist to have mounted and was offered $45.00 for it, which he refused. William is bemoaning his loss. He says he would prefer the $45.00.

Mr. Jack Bertram, recently of Portland, Ore., who has secured a better paying position in Seattle and exchanged his Portland property for one in Seattle, which they could not take possession of until June 1st, brought his family and dog and baby chicks from Portland to Tacoma in their reliable Ford on Saturday, May 5th, and the whole trio put up at Mrs. Eva Seeley's "Tourist Hotel," where all expect Mr. Bertram remained until Saturday June 2d, when they resumed their journey to Seattle.

During their stay in Tacoma the Bertrams called on old friends, they having been former residents here and in Puyallup. On Sunday, May 6th, they visited the Stuards in Puyallup, the Rowlands at Spanaway, and Mr. Lorenz. Mrs. Seeley and daughter Elinor accompanied them on most of the trips.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bertram, the local deaf gathered at the home of Mrs. Seeley, on May 27th, for a social afternoon and evening. Buffet lunch was served and an enjoyable time passed with cards and chatting. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stuard and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Woolridge and little son, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ecker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hole and baby, Mr. and Mrs. John Gerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Key, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bertram and children, Mr. and Mrs. William Rowland, Mrs. Emma Hutson, Mrs. Seeley and children, Miss Mabel Segel, Mr. Ernest Rowland, Mr. Clarence Farlow, Mr. Ralph Pickett, Mr. Emil Lichtenberg and Mr. A. W. Lorenz. Outside visitors were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wright, who motored over from Seattle, and Mr. Thys L. Ferwerda, of Seattle.

Those who attended the above party were treated to the sight of a real "giant" in the person of Mr. Ferwerda, who is 6 feet 4 inches tall! Altho a resident of Seattle, he did not grow there. He is lately from Montana. Mrs. Jack Bertram and Mrs. Eva Seeley and daughter Elinor, were the guests at luncheon Tuesday, May 15th, of Miss Mabel Segel.

Who says that a cool day or a rainy day is not a good day for a picnic? Mrs. Seeley and Miss Segel can testify to the contrary. Tuesday, May 29th, was a rainy day—even to a hail storm—nevertheless, Mrs. Bertram, who is a good car driver, took the two ladies for a ride in her reliable Ford out to Puyallup. The two aforementioned ladies sat on the back seat comfortably chatting, all contained in to protect them from the rain, while the driver was busily occupied with her great responsibility. What is there to equal a moving porch with upholstered seat! Arriving in Puyallup, the party, with immense appetites, turned the "porch" into a dining room and feasted on all the good things they could clean out of the stores—not forgetting the after-dinner mints—after which the return trip was made, avoiding all skidding, ditches, poles, and safely to their doors.

Next day (Memorial Day) was cool and uncertain, the sun coming and going at intervals. Mrs. Bertram, not being handy to entertain Mrs. Seeley, and Miss Segel having gone to Seattle on business for the day, the two heroines, with lunch baskets, hid themselves to the South Tacoma Park, near the home of Miss Segel, where they built a fire in the big brick stove and prepared lunch. In fact, they made a day of it, sitting in front of the stove, with its door open, which served as a fireplace, thus chatting and eating and keeping the park warm?

Why don't some one in Spokane write their news items in the JOURNAL? Many of us here and elsewhere have friends there, that we would like to hear about. Step lively, please!

Lauder and Shean Device Manufacturing Company, Valley Stream, R. I., is a thing of the past, but it will remain in the memory of at least two "victims" in Tacoma.

So far as learned, those of the local deaf, who contemplate attending the State Convention at Spokane, are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowland, who will motor over in their Ford, and Mr. Clarence "Sunflower" (from Kansas) Farlow.

Those who are not fortunate enough to be of the party expect to enjoy themselves at their annual "home" picnic on July 4th. Mr. A. W. Lorenz announces that it will be at Stellacoom Lake. Take the "Manitou Park" car in Pacific Avenue, bound south; get off at Manitou Park (which, by the way, is the tourist camping ground). Transfer to "Stellacoom Lake" and get off there. Fares on the Stellacoom line are only about nine cents extra, according to Mr. Lorenz, and city fares are ten cents, or three tickets for twenty-five cents; or twenty-five tickets for $2. All outsiders welcome! It is expected that several, if not all, will come from Seattle.

You'll like Tacoma.

WEDDING BELLS

KAUFFMAN—WIEGAND.

One of the most beautiful weddings in which the Deaf of Baltimore have probably ever been interested, and in which two of their number were the principals, was solemnized in Grace and St. Peter's Episcopal Church on Tuesday evening, June 12th.

The happy young people were Miss Alberta Wiegand, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William F. Wiegand, of Roland Park, Baltimore, and Mr. Ray Kauffman, formerly of Virginia, but for the past ten or more years a resident of Baltimore.

The church was illuminated by numerous clusters of lights and decorated with palms and potted plants. A large and notable audience of six hundred invited guests, including many Deaf friends, filled the central nave. Those who could hear listened for many minutes to the prelude to Mendelssohn's wedding march.

At 7:30 P. M., led by the four ushers and the bridesmaid, who was beautifully gowned in pink georgette crepe, the procession, slowly and to the strains of the organ, began the march down the long central aisle. Miss Wiegand, carrying a large bouquet of bridal roses and leaning upon the arm of her distinguished father, Dr. Wiegand, followed. She was a vision of loveliness in a trailing dress of white satin, trimmed with French lace. At the entrance to the chancel they were met by Mr. Kauffman, escorted by the best man, Mr. Henry Wiegand, uncle of the bride. The beautiful marriage service of the Episcopal Church was read orally by the Rector, Rev. A. P. Almon Abbott, D. D., and in the sign language by the Minister of the Mission to the Deaf of the Church, Rev. Oliver J. Whildin.

Following the ceremony in the Church, a formal and elaborate reception was held at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Wiegand in Roland Park. About two hundred of the guests were here permitted to congratulate the newly married couple, to view the large array of wedding gifts showered upon them, and to partake of bounteous refreshments. In the reviewing line, beside Mr. and Mrs. Kauffman, were Dr. and Mrs. Wiegand, Mr. and Mrs. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Mattingly, Mr. and Mrs. Penniman, and a sister and niece of Mr. Kauffman, with their husbands. The large library of the residence afforded those of the guests so inclined an opportunity to indulge to their heart's content in music and dancing.

At 11 P. M. Mr. and Mrs. Kauffman departed, amid a shower of confetti, on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, Atlantic City, New York, Philadelphia, and other points of interest. Upon their return they will make their home at 336 Ichester Ave., a cozy little home which Mr. Kauffman purchased several years ago in preparation for just such an event as bringing home a bride.

PITTSBURGH.

The Pittsburgh Branch, G. C. A. A., held its regular business meeting in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Manning, May 25th, and called to order at 8:30 P. M., by the President, C. A. Painter, '01.

There were many absentees, as the roll call revealed, and the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting also showed that plans for social meetings and entertainments discussed at that meeting had not been carried out. No explanation for the seeming lack of interest was given, and as there was no new business offered, the election of officers of the Branch was in order, which resulted as follows: President, G. M. Teegarden, '76; Vice-President, Mrs. F. M. Holliday; Secretary-Treasurer, F. R. Gray (re-elected). The rest of the evening was spent in social enjoyment. Attention was called to the fact that the school would have no representative at Gallaudet after the close of the present course. Mr. Manning spoke at some length, regretting the School would not be represented as it should be, and explained the reason why. He hoped in time his School would have its full quota of representatives at college. Following Mr. Manning's talk refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cakes and coffee, were served by Mrs. Manning and her assistants.

Memorial Day, May 30th, 1923, will be memorable in the history of the Edgewood School. On this day the new steel flagpole, presented by Mr. O. J. H. Hartsoff, General Superintendent of the Edgar Thomson Steel Works at Braddock, was dedicated, and an interesting program in connection carried out.

The activities of our people hereabouts consist chiefly in preparations for events to come, and judging by these one is impressed that there will be something doing before a great while.

The Pittsburgh Branch, N. A. D., will hold forth in a grand picnic, open to everybody, at Highland Park (Rhododendron Place), June 30th. Field sports and all manner of amusements will be provided for all, under the guidance of a competent committee. Refreshments will also be supplied, so that those who do not bring their own picnic necessities will be able to satisfy the inner man on the grounds, and enabled to enjoy a longer day of real pleasure. It is the aim of the committee to provide for every necessity and comfort of all participants. A large crowd is expected.

The Pittsburgh Division, N. F. S. D., No. 36, is also looking forward a bit, for already a good-sized section of Highland Park (The Farm House Place) has been pre-empted for their Basket Picnic to be held there August 18th. This, too, will be arranged in view of a large attendance. In the meantime, however, the Frats expect to have a lawn fete on the Edgewood School grounds, June 23d.

The Edgewood School will close for the summer vacation on June 20th. There will be no graduates this year, but there will be closing exercises, which doubtless will please the patrons as well as anything else.

Measles have broken out in the school, but whether it will be epidemic or not remain to be seen.

Mr. Michael Lapides, chief chemist of a Boston Aluminum Co., passed through Pittsburgh June 4th. He was on a business trip to include Columbus, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago, besides Pittsburgh. He made a brief call at the School, but failed to see some of his friends. It is evident that Michael has climbed the ladder of success since he lived with us a few years ago. But, of course, it is hard to keep a good man down.

Mr. J. M. Rolshouse has suffered another serious "set-back" to his health. He was confined to his home for two weeks after an attack of vertigo, while on duty. He is improving, and expects to be on deck again shortly.

How Mr. Wren Became King of the Birds.

Long ago the birds wanted to choose a king. All the big ones, all the little ones, and all the middle-sized ones came from far and near, to have a flying contest. The bird who flew the highest would make the best king.

Three birds were told to stay on the ground and tell which flew the highest.

The other birds started up together. They went up and up and up. The eagle flew the highest. The birds thought that he would be king.

Just then a tiny bird arose from the SOUTH CALIFORNIA.

The funny blunders a nervous or an absent minded person makes, keep the world smiling in forgetting its own troubles. Well, I was telling a ghost story. Facing the kind audience, I was not at ease. I wanted to say that I might be mortal, but still I knew ghosts. I managed to say that I could not die or live! Another time I was presiding at a meeting of the P. S. A. D. at Seattle. In explaining a resolution offered, I said that it was a motion to take the picnic from the treasury to buy prizes for the money. It was accepted, and in the minutes it was set down straight. But how many in either audience observed my blunder on either occasion?

I have been placed. I was telling W. F. Schneider I like to sit in a theatre, where I can hear the music rendered by the big orchestras. I said my hearing is better than the majority of the deaf think, but that I can not hear ordinary conversation. It is only in certain places, in the theatre, I hear very well. It is not feeling, but real hearing, and only in certain places, and sometimes I feel or hear nothing the whole time. W. F. S. commented with the observation that he has met many deaf-mutes, who could hear as well as any normal person, but could not understand oral speech, and could not write English. Now you know my status.

I have been having trouble with my eyes. Testing them by self, after explicit directions, it seems the left eye sees double or blurred at all distances. Dr. W. H. Bates has written an authoritative book on eyes, wherein he shows eyes need exercise as much as any other part of the body. A noted physical culturist, who trained himself into health, has written a course of eye exercises, endorsed by Dr. Bates, which I am following. Norman Hopgood has written a syndicated article on Germany's public school system, in which he says the eye exercises prescribed by Dr. Bates are compulsory on all from Kindergarten to teacher, with convincing beneficial results. The German alphabet, printed and written, is difficult of reading. Several letters look alike, except for a slight turn or twist. Before the compulsory observance of daily eye exercises, spectacle wearing was almost unusual among German School children. Now the reverse is the case. So I have hopes that by steady, persistent, observance of daily eye exercise, my sight will be as good as it used to be. There is a deaf man in Los Angeles, who wore spectacles for twelve years, and has been able to discard them, after four days exercise with the eyes. The exercises are designed to give control of the muscles and to improve focusing ability.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Park, the L. A. O. S., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradshaw, all of Santa Barbara, motored down in one of the Bradshaw Buicks, to attend the last May meeting of the L. A. S. C. and the picnic at Griffith Park of the A. C. D. They all enjoyed the outing and promised to be back for the convention of the California State Association of the Deaf, July 1st-4th at Los Angeles.

Since the Parks did not appear bankrupt, I am entirely satisfied my mutilation of the lemon trees did not kill them (trees or Parks.) So once more I am wearing a carefree idiotic smile.

Four members of Gallaudet College '95 are now domiciled in L. A.: Mrs. Augusta K. Barrett, of Iowa; Ernest Bingham, of North Carolina; Clarence Murday, of Illinois; and T. C. Mueller, of Ohio. They are enjoying reminiscent tales of their Kendall Green days. Mr. and Mrs. Barrett (the former '89), and Messrs. Murday and Mueller, had a feast gastronomic and better at a Boos cafe last Sunday.

Attention: A tramp print is the cant name given a journeyman printer of the class now scarce of printers supposed to be expert in all branches of the art preservative, front or back. Printers now are supposed to be specialists in one line, never to interfere in other lines. Real honest-to-goodness tramp printers, all-around men, able to help out in emergency in any thing in the trade, are scarce as hen's teeth, almost. The demands of modern printing are too much for one man, however brainy he may be, to know every line. The word "tramp" does not refer to the supposed state of improvidence or inefficiency. It refers to his habit of moving, never sticking to one place long. They now call themselves "hobo," "journeyman" or "all-around." So too, jack-of-all-trades is mythical. He may know something of many trades, but he is only a helper. He does not get the top wages.

Alvin Dyson at first recognized me as John Miller, a few minutes later in my absence he recollected me as John Mueller, but he has finally remembered me as I was. Well, where is Joseph H. Mueller? Last I knew, he was in Western Ohio, twenty or more years ago and went west. Does A. B. G. know?

Alvin Dyson is doing well. He has stuck to his job for the Neuner corp.

President Matthews of the L. A. Branch of the N. A. D. has made arrangements for the reception of the California State Association of the Deaf that will insure intimate and beneficial relations in the future. Matty is a leader in local circles that is doing great good.

T. C. MUELLER.
